UNIVERSITY POLICY AND STATE LAW

- 1.01 Oklahoma State University Institute of Technology is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer, and as such, provides equal opportunity for employment and advancement of all employees without regard to race, creed, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, qualified disability, or veterans' status.
- 1.02 It is the policy of Oklahoma State University Institute of Technology to select applicants for positions at the University on qualifications, merit, and professional capability alone without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, qualified disability, or veteran's status as defined by law.
- 1.03 It is further the policy of the University to be in voluntary compliance with any and all applicable statutes, regulations, and executive orders as they pertain to equal opportunity and nondiscrimination regardless of whether such statutes, regulations, or executive orders are of federal or state origin.
- 1.04 Nepotism
- A. Immediate family members of employees may be employed by the University in any department and in any position provided the level of training, experience and qualifications are commensurate with the needs of the position.
- B. There shall be no restrictions of employment, salary, promotion, assignment, working conditions, or other factors based upon kinship. In instances where one member of the family is in a position to function as a judge or advocate in specific situations involving a member of the immediate family, it shall be the policy of the University that one shall neither initiate nor participate in institutional decisions involving a direct benefit (initial appointment, retention, promotion, salary, leave, etc.) to the other(s). For the purpose of this policy, the immediate family is defined as father, mother, sister, brother, husband, wife, son, daughter, grandfather, grandmother, grandson, granddaughter, or corresponding in-law relationships.
- 1.05 Each employee of Oklahoma State University Institute of Technology, by performing his/her assigned duties, contributes to the instructional, research and administrative activity of the University. Thus, the University subscribes to sustaining the dignity of the employee and endeavors to provide working conditions based on fair and equitable standards.
